DAILY COURT RECORD

Wash., and Royall Victor, of New York City, were admitted to practice.

Nos. 4. Original. The United States of America, complainant, ys. Joseph F. Shipp, Jeremiah Gibson. Luther Williams, Nick Nolan, Henry Padgett, and William Mayse, were present in court in response to the rule issued against them, and asked that sentence be pronounced. These defendants were them called to the bar by the clerk. The Chief Justice announced the judgment of the court as follows:

"You, Joseph F. Shipp, Jeremiah Gibson, Luther Williams, Nick Nolan, Henry Padgett, and William Mayse, are before this court on an attachment for contempt.

"On return to a rule to show cause you have persented such evidence as you were advised and been fully heard orally and on printed briefs, and after thorough consideration you have been found guilty. You have also been parmitted severally to present petitions for rehearing and move that leave be granted to file them, which, after consideration was reached are set forth in the opinion filed herein on the stay mandate denied. "The grounds upon which the conclusion was reached are set forth in the opinion filed herein on Monday, May 23, 1998, and need not be repeated, nor need we dwell upon the destructive consequences of permitting the transaction complained of to pass into a precedent for unpunished contempt.

"It is considered by the court and the judgment of the court is that as punishment for the contempt, you, Joseph F. Shipp, Latther Williams, and Nick Nolan, and each of you, be imprisoned for the period of ninety days, and that you, Jeremiah Gibson, Henry Padgett, and William Mayse, and cach of you, be imprisoned for the period of sixty days, in the jail of the District of Columbia.
